Where a child has become financially independent during the current financial year, please advise the date they left school or home

If you have received Working for Families Tax Credits during the year, please supply the certificate issued to you by IRD, detailing the amounts.

Also, provide details of any child support or maintenance payments made or received.

Adjustments to your Family Income for Working for Families Tax Credits

There have been changes to the types of income you must tell us about when applying for and receiving Working for Families Tax credits.

We need to know if you received income from the following sources as this is important for the entitlement calculation.

- Attributable trustee income
- Attributable fringe benefits
- PIE income
- Passive income of children
- Income of non-resident spouse
- Tax exempt salary or wages
- Pensions and Annuities
- Other payments
- Income equalisation scheme deposits (excludes 'adverse events' deposits)

Our advice is, if in doubt, tell us the income and we can advise accordingly with reference to the legislation whether the type of income needs to be included in the family income calculation for an entitlement.
